Venice, January 22. N. S.

THE Earl of Peterborough ſtill continues here, and has not as yet fix'd any time for his Departure. They write from Rome, that the Cardinal Albani made his Publick Entry into that City on the Tenth Inſtant, with a hundred and nineteen Coaches of the Nobility and Prelates, beſides thoſe that were ſent to meet him at Caſtel Nuovo and Prima Porta. On the Fourteenth he went with a numerous Cavalcade to his firſt Audience, in order to receive the Hat in a publick Conſiſtory: On the ſame Day he began his Viſits of Ceremony, and firſt with the Cardinal Acciaoli, who is Vice-Dean; and in the Evening he viſited the Queen of Poland. This Republick is very much diſpleas'd at the Proceedings of the Cardinal Ottoboni, who has taken upon him the Character of Protector of France, contrary to the expreſs Orders of this State; whereupon they have baniſh'd him, raz'd his Name out of the Golden Book, confiſcated his Eſtate, and the Eccleſiaſtical Revenues which he is poſſeſs'd of in their Dominions: His whole Family is likewiſe baniſh'd, and the Procurator Ottoboni, with the reſt of them, went for Rome on Monday laſt. The Senate has appointed the Signiors Victor Zane, who is now at Vienna, and Michael Moroſini, to Compliment his Imperial Majeſty, upon his Election to that Dignity.

Vienna, January 27. N. S. His Imperial Majeſty arriv'd at this Place Incognito upon Yeſterday in the Evening, and would not ſuffer any ſhow of Ceremony for his Reception. This Day he went to St. Stephen's Church, to aſſiſt at Te Deum for his ſafe arrival. His Majeſty himſelf was on Horſeback, preceded firſt by the Trebants, who are a ſort of Yeomen of the Guards, and the Hachiers; next came the Council of the Regency, Men of the firſt Quality, and they were followed by the Gentlemen of the Bedchamber, with all the great Officers of the Court on Foot, to the Number of about One hundred and twenty, in very rich Habits. Count Philip of Dietrichſtein, Maſter of the Horſe went on the Right, and Count Windiſgratz on the Left Hand of his Imperial Majeſty. In about an Hour and halfs time they return'd in the ſame Order: The Garriſon of the City to the Number of about Two thouſand Men, new Cloath'd, were drawn out in the Place called the Graben, and gave three Salvoes at convenient Diſtances; the Cannon round the Ramparts being Fired thrice in like manner. The Streets were clean'd of the Snow and Ice, ſtrow'd with Sand, and crowded with Multitudes of People. The Mourning at Court is ſuſpended for three Days, but no Illuminations, or other publick Demonſtrations of Joy are permitted.

Venice, January 29. N. S. They write from Rome, That the Pope has reſolved to make four new Saints on the Twenty-ſecond of May next, and that the Coſt of that Ceremony will amount to the Sum of Seventy five thouſand Crowns, the Prince Avellino has taken his leave of the Pope, and is preparing himſelf for his return to Naples. On Tueſday Morning laſt, the Prince Hercolani, Ambaſſador from the Emperor and King of Spain, went into the College of this Republick, where he made a Speech, and deliver'd his Credentials, but has not yet receiv'd his Anſwer from the Senate, in the mean time he is preparing a great Conſort of Muſick, and Building a Throne in a large Church, in order to have Te Deum ſung upon Occaſion of his Maſter's having been Elected to be Emperor. The Prince of Anhalt, and the Lord Herbert, are arriv'd in this City, and the Electoral Prince of Saxony is daily expected. The Plague being got into Croatia and Dalmatia, the Magiſtrate of Health has forbid on Pain of Death, all Communication with thoſe Provinces, as likewiſe with that of Albania, the Iſlands of Fiume, Buccari, Buccariza, and all other Places on the Auſtrian Shore.

Berlin, January 30. N. S. On Sunday laſt about Noon, the Princeſs-Royal was brought to Bed of a Son: As ſoon as his Pruſſian Majeſty was inform'd of it by Monſieur Gundelſheim, his chief Phyſician, he roſe up immediately from Dinner with great Expreſſions of Joy, and went to ſee the young Prince, to whom he gave the Order of the Black Eagle; in the mean time the Cannon were fir'd thrice round the Town, and all Perſons of Diſtinction paid their Complements to the King upon that Occaſion. His Majeſty deſigns to have the Prince Chriſtned to Morrow in the Chapel, upon which Solemnity the Court will go out of Mourning.

Bruſſels, February 11. N. S. By Letters from Valenciennes, of the Seventh, we have an Account, that the Garriſon, being provided with Bread for two Days, together with a Company of Miners, accoutred with all their neceſſary Utenſils, march'd out of that Place under the Command of the Mareſchal de Monteſquion, the Prince de Tingree, and ſeveral other Generals. They were join'd by the Garriſon of Conde, Commanded by Monſieur de Conflans, Lieutenant-General, with four Pieces of Cannon; and by the Garriſon of Queſnoy, under the Command of Monſieur de Monvielle, Lieutenant-General. About Break-of-day they came up to the Poſt of Mortagne, with a Deſign to deſtroy the Sluice of Tuin; but being adviſed that the Troops of the Allies had Intelligence of the Deſign, and were then upon their Guard, they thought fit to retire without Delay. The firſt Order that was given was, to draw off the Cannon; which being heard by the Troops, they fell Pell-mell upon one another in their Retreat, which was before they could be join'd by the Troops under the Command of the Mareſchal de Monteſquion. The Severity of the Weather, the great Rains, and Badneſs of the Ways, have ſent about two hundred Men to the Hoſpital, and given occaſion to above five hundred more to become Deſerters. Our laſt Letters from Paris bring an Account, that Monſieur the Duke of Berry, being in the Field for his Diverſion, with Monſieur the Duke, the Son of the Prince of Conti, and Grandſon of the Great Conde, as he was ſhooting at a Partridge, ſtruck four or five Small-ſhot into his Left-Eye, and that they paſs'd quite through his Head; ſo that the Life of that Prince is in very great Danger.

Bruſſels,

Bruſſels, February 15. N. S. Monſieur Hompeſch, Governor of Doway, had form'd a Deſign of deſtroying the Enemies Magazines of Forage that were at Arras; it was very well concerted, but did not ſucceed in the Execution to the full Intent of it: However, they found means to burn near thirty thouſand Rations.

Falmouth, February 14. This Day came in here to load Pilchards for the Streights, the Heroine Gally and Dutcheſs. Arriv'd alſo the Sparrow Gally in ten Days from Viana, Thomas Elliot Maſter, of and for London. Sail'd alſo the Union Pacquet, Capt. Jones, with one Mail and an Expreſs for Liſbon.

Plymouth, February 15. The Thirteenth came in the St. Aſtura, of and from Bilboa, with Wooll and Iron for London. Yeſterday came in the Two Brothers, of and for London, with Fruit from Sevil. This Day ſail'd the St. Aſtura for London.

Deal, February 17. Yeſterday came down the Betty Pink for Viana, Mary Brigantine for New-England, and the Potapſco Merchant for Virginia. But theſe, with all the other Virginia Ships and their Convoy are Unmooring, in order to Sail Weſtward.
